

Curriculum Vitae

Personal data

Name: Adam Porubszky
Date of birth: 11th January 1993
Place of birth: Budapest
Nationality: Hungarian
Email address: porubszky.adam@btk.ppke.hu

Studies

2004—2012: Budai Ciszterci Szent Imre Secondary School, Budapest
2012—2015: Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Faculty of Humanities and Social Science, History Department, Degree of Bachelor's in History (specialization programs in Medieval History and Political Science)
2015—2017: Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Faculty of Humanities and Social Science, History Department, Pre-Degree Certificate in Master of Arts
2017: second place award on the 33rd National Scientific Students' Associations Conference (Pécs), section of Late-Medieval Hungarian History

Work experience

2015: one week internship in the Diocesan Archives of Győr
June–August 2015: external staff of the National Archives of Hungary (project of digitizing 19th century hungarian parliament index books)
September–January 2016: internship in the National Archives of Hungary (organisation of hungarian emigration heritage)
2017: external staff of the National Archives of Hungary ('Reformation Project': processing 16th century documents in a database)
2017–: assistant research fellow of the Church History Research Institute of Pázmány Péter Catholic University

Memberships

2015–: member of the Kubinyi András Historian Workshop
2015–2017: participation on the Fraknói Summer Academies

Language skills

English: fluent (language exam in B2 level)
Latin: intermediate reading
Slovene: basic